Principal's Message

It was a pleasure to have our local member, Mark Taylor visit the TEPS Hub on Tuesday 27th March. Mr Taylor enjoyed the hospitality of our Breakfast Club and chatted with students about the local area and how he can help.

Many thanks to the P&C for their wonderful Easter Raffle prizes and for all of the families who attended the Easter Hat Parade. Due to the festivities, TEPS will celebrate Harmony Day on Thursday 5th April.

Principals Morning Tea

Many students are earning higher levels of achievement and have reached their Bronze Level. To acknowledge their hard work a special morning tea will occur on the last Wednesday of each term. Students will receive an invitation and award for attending. Our first Principals Morning Tea will be Wednesday 11th April, 2018.

Congratulations to the following winners...

Peyton, Sienna, Tara, Thailya, Olivia, Mrs Holland, Abiman, Pearl, Marcus Nowland and Neha.

Coles

We have had a wonderful response from our school community and have collected so many vouchers. Our admin team are busy counting and will return the vouchers this week. Our SRC will be involved in choosing equipment when it comes time to "spend" our vouchers. Thank you!

Australian Playhouse Play

Students will enjoy a play delivered by performers titled "Red Riding Robyn Hood" on Wednesday 4th April in the Hall at 9am.

National Day of Action Against Bullying and Violence

At TEPS we are Buddies not Bullies

SAFETY ALERT!

Please do not park in the staff car park. Please walk with children on the designated yellow painted footpath ONLY. Keep our kids safe.
